

Williamsburg UMPIRE CAMP 2010

Advanced 3 Man Umpiring Mechanics

February 9 – February 14, 2010

The timing of the Williamsburg camp is perfect. The ODAC and USA South and other sub DI schools are starting that week. In addition, the Big DI schools will start real games the 19th of February. Cost of the camp is only $500 for the week. There will be classes and drills and GAMES to work with some of the instructors! Since the Williamsburg Camp is before March 1 - it does qualify for Camp Ratings Bumps and will generate college ratings for possible DI assignments. At least 4 DI Colleges will be participating in this camp.

Program of Instruction

First class session will be Tuesday at 9:00AM and the last class will be over at on Sunday afternoon. Daily instruction will include comprehensive classroom discussion of mechanics and techniques, NCAA Rules AND 2010 MECHANICS, The Strike Zone, Handling Situations, Communication, Philosophy of Plate and Base Work, Field Work and Drills. Also included in the course of Instruction are daily actual live game assignments with evaluations of on-field performance. All students will be grouped in accordance with their umpire experience and previous camp experience. All registrations are subject to approval.

MISSION:

This will be the most advanced umpire training camp for Non-professional umpires in the country. This will be a 6 -day no holds barred upper level umpire camp geared to teaching the skills required for NCAA Conference level games. We will place umpires in advanced assignments based on camp performance.
